Letter of recommendation

I have known Ashwin for more than 5 years when I was his Team Lead as he joined IBM India. It was professional acquaintance at first but then we ended up becoming very good friends.

Ashwin is one of the very few friends I have, whom I can rely upon without a second thought. He is a very humble, down to earth guy who is always there for you when you need him. He is someone that I could relate to and talk to, about anything though the fact that we have a lot of common interests has helped us maintain the friendship I am so proud of. He is a very good listener and comes up with a balanced and approachable answers/solution to any question and issue I have ever had and shared with him. He comes with a lot of positive energy and makes you feel good about yourself and he would do in whatever way possible to help you tackle the situation. Having him around makes such a difference that we have spent countless nights just talking about places, cultures, movies and everything else.

Ashwin is a highly motivated individual and he would set goals for himself and wouldn't stop pursuing them until he gets there. I still remember a number of occasions when I have backed out of our resolution of going to gym together but he would be there at the gym every single day. This has made me realize that he is the one who would take his goals seriously and would work towards them. I have learnt a lot from him over the past years. I have never seen him lose his calm and have seen him dealing with the toughest of the situations with a smile on his face.

I hope this letter talks a little about his personality though this few lines would not be enough to talk about this nice gentleman.

Thank you for taking the time to read this letter.

Sincerely,

Abdul Rafiq
